Youth Council Profile

Amber O'Donoghue

Kerang Technical High School

Year 10

Why did you join Youth Council?

I joined Youth Council to become more confident in talking to people and to help out in the community with other young people

Where do you see yourself in 5 years' time?

In five years' time I plan to be taking a university course and be the loving mother of several kittens.

Interests or something interesting about yourself

I really enjoy graphic design. After finishing Uni I plan on working my way up to owning my own graphic design business.

What is one thing you would like to see happen or change in Gannawarra to make it a better place for young people?

I want there to be more awareness of mental health issues surrounding young people in our community.
