ROAMING LIVESTOCK CONCERNS

Livestock owners are reminded to ensure their animals are secured on their properties following a recent increase in the number of reported incidents of wandering livestock. Council staff had tended to an increasing number of calls relating to wandering livestock over the past few weeks. The recent run of foggy and frosty mornings poses added dangers for motorists driving without the risk of having to negotiate wayward livestock.

While some of the recent incidents Gannawarra Shire Council staff have tended to are a result of property gates being left open following spotlighting expeditions, most are due to the property owner or occupier failing to adequately maintain the fencing.

It is an offence to keep livestock on any property which is not securely fenced. Stock owners are responsible for the damage caused to life and property by their stock if they are not properly confined.

Stock owners can be fined up to $8,050 for allowing livestock to escape onto public roads.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

The past few weeks have been awards time for the Gannawarra Shire. Following on from the McCann Crescent Park rejuvenation project being recognised at the National Local Government Awards, Council's 2018 Annual Report received a Silver Award in the Australasian Reporting Awards. This accolade is a credit to Council's creative and hardworking staff. Meanwhile, the architects of the Koondrook Wharf have received an International Architecture award in Urban Planning /Landscape for the project. I look forward to further developments regarding the Koondrook Wharf area in the future.

I would like to thank the public for its patience during the recent upgrade to Sampson's Bridge and Stage 2 of the Koondrook CBD redevelopment. Both projects are now complete, so I encourage the community to visit both locations.

With Council recently adopting the 2019/2020 Council Budget, I look forward to commencement of $10.877 million worth of capital works projects throughout the Gannawarra. I hope you continue to check on your farming friends or neighbours.

Kind regards,
Mayor Lorraine Learmonth

An owl's search for wisdom will inspire a week of events starting on Friday 12 July at Leitchville.

Council and the Leitchville community have united to put on what will be the major theatre performance occurring locally these school holidays – The Owl's Apprentice.

Designed to appeal to children aged 12 years and under, The Owl's Apprentice uses a combination of shadow puppetry, hand puppetry and storytelling to celebrate Australia's unique wildlife through a gentle story of learning to become wise. Admission is $15 for adults and children aged four years and older. Free admission is available for children aged three years and under.

Tickets can be purchased online at www.trybooking.com/BDGMW

Children who attend pre-schools that operate within the Gannawarra will also have the chance to experience the show during free performances at Cohuna and Kerang between Tuesday, 16 July and Thursday, 18 July.

E-WASTE BAN IN PLACE

Residents are reminded that electronic materials that are no longer working or used are banned from being placed in kerbside rubbish bins and landfills throughout Victoria. E-waste refers to any item with a plug, battery or cord that is no longer working or wanted. These include computers, mobile phones, microwaves, printers, televisions, heaters and gaming consoles.

Council's Transfer Stations at Cohuna and Kerang can accept electronic items that require batteries to operate, or has a cord and plug. A $25 charge applies for each computer monitor, laptop or television handed in as these items contain toxic chemicals – such as barium, phosphor, lead and hexavalent chromium – which require special handling. Further details regarding Council's e-waste services are available online at www.gsc.vic.gov.au

COMMUNITY CARE SERVICES – PERSONAL CARE

As we age, daily personal care routines can sometimes become more difficult to maintain without help. Something as simple as taking a shower or bath can become a slip and fall risk as mobility issues develop. The Commonwealth Home Support Program (CHSP) provides a suite of services to frail, older clients aged 65 years and over, which is designed to help you stay living in your own home. Our team is trained to support you with such tasks as medication monitoring, meal assistance, showers and personal appearance so you can look your best every day.
