

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Easter is traditionally a busy time for the Gannawarra, with many community groups spending this week finalising plans for what will be their largest events to occur since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic.

I encourage all residents and visitors to support these groups as they help lead the Gannawarra's social recovery from this pandemic.

Kind regards,

Mayor Charlie Gillingham

ACCESSIBILITY PARKING PERMITS

VicRoads' Accessibility Parking Permit Scheme is replacing the Disability Parking Permit, and aims to standardise permits to better align with the Australian Disability Parking Scheme. As part of these changes, applications for new Accessible Parking Permits need to be completed online via a VicRoads portal, which is available at www.gsc.vic.gov.au/parking. Residents who need assistance to complete an application are welcome to visit either the Cohuna or Kerang Customer Service Centre's, where our friendly staff are able to help. Residents who currently hold a Disability Parking Permit may continue to do so until their current permit expires.

CREATIVE GANNAWARRA

Have you heard about Creative Gannawarra? Launched earlier this month, Creative Gannawarra is the rebranding of Council's Gannawarra Arts and Culture program, which has successfully involved Council partnering with the community in hosting arts and culture projects throughout the municipality. Creative Gannawarra will see Council support local creative people and organisations, as well as encourage community participation in the planning and delivery of creative projects.
