VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Enjoy a chat and have a spare hour once a month/bi-monthly? You can make a huge difference to the lives of many by volunteering for our Meals on Wheels program in Cohuna and Kerang.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Next Friday is the official opening of the Kerang CBD!

A community carnival celebration is planned and all are welcome to attend.

The official ceremony will take place at 1pm followed by afternoon tea. An exciting after school program of activities is also planned with The Odd Sock Circus performing from 3.45pm. There will be free face painting, balloons, popcorn and fairy floss too! Later on there will be free live music and tapas tastings. Make sure you support our local traders by making a purchase on the day and entering into the Kerang Carnival Cash Draw. Our traders will be holding a market day so come down and support them and check out the new look CBD!

It will be wonderful to see our very first Kerang community social meal later this week which will be held at the Kerang Lawn Tennis Club. Cohuna residents will also enjoy a social meal in the supper room of the Cohuna Memorial Hall the following week.

Don't forget our community grants program closes on Tuesday 13 March so make sure you get your application in or call Council if you require assistance.
